Basalt firm wins Cooper Lighting SOURCE award

Cooper Lighting, a division of Cooper Industries Ltd., has announced the winners of the 33rd annual SOURCE Awards national lighting design competition.

In the Professional Residential Category, top honors went to the design team of Robert H. Singer, Chase Carter and Kim Quint of Robert Singer & Associates of Basalt for the lighting design of the Ridge Residence in Aspen. Robert H. Singer and Kim Quint were also honored with an Award of Recognition in the same category for the lighting design of the Willow Court Residence, also located in Aspen.

Robert Singer & Associates Inc. received a $2,000 monetary award.

The annual competition, which focuses on furthering the understanding, knowledge and function of lighting as a primary element in design, requires the primary and predominant use of Cooper Lighting products. Cooper Lighting has held this competition since 1977.
